

WELCOME TO OMAN DESIGN & BUILD WEEK

The Oman Design & Build Week, which incorporates The BIG Show and Oman Real Estate Exhibition (OREX), is a vibrant networking and sourcing platform for the building and real estate industries. Held annually, Oman Design & Build Week offers your company an engaging platform to promote your brands and products to 11,000 highly qualified buyers that include decision makers from architects, consultants, engineers, contractors, distributors and procurement managers from across Oman.

Oman Design & Build Week 2020 will provide you with the opportunity to tap into an annual project market worth $ 202 billion (Source: MEED Projects) across various sectors including commercial and residential, water, energy, oil and gas, transportation and infrastructure as well as health and hospitality. Segmented into eight industry sectors, Oman Design & Build Week 2020 presents your company with better promotion and branding opportunities with its dedicated zones plus focused workshops and features that bring you closer to your potential clients.
